

EXPERIENCE. DEDICATION. COMPASSION

The greatest gift you can give your family and the world is a healthy you.

Patient Care

Patient comfort and assurance is very important to us. Beyond our expertise, we care for each individual with a personal touch.

Leading Technology

Equipped with state-of-the-art technology, we strive to provide you with the standard of care and aim to exceed your expectations in diagnostic imaging.

Speed With Accuracy

This is made possible only through the seamless blend of human expertise and technology.

Quantum Medical Imaging

We know how critical our role is to your health and peace of mind. That's why our specialised team work closely with you and your referring doctor to personalise scan protocols to exclude or confirm a diagnosis. This enables timely answers that provide the clarity and comfort you need.

Our center is fully facilitated with new generation MRI, ultrasound and X-ray machines, complete with updated software. Coupled with expertise of our technologists who understand and know how to optimize machine capabilities, we deliver clear and meaningful images for accurate diagnosis.

At Quantum Medical Imaging, we work behind the scenes to enable a healthier landscape in Singapore.

10+
Years of Experience

We Provide Assistance in Various Directions

Contact us in any suitable way to make an appointment for your every need.

Diagnostic Imaging

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI)

MRI is a test your doctor may order to diagnose a disease or injury, or to check how well a treatment is working.

Ultrasound

Ultrasound is a quick and easy exam that is commonly used as a first diagnostic imaging step.

X-Ray

X-ray is a fast and simple exam that produces images of the structures inside your body.

Health Screening

Individual

Whether it is your first, second or third time getting your health checked, our in-house doctor is always prepared to listen to you, take tests accordingly and explain your results patiently.

Corporate

We cater to both on-site and off-site health screening be it small, medium or large groups.

Connecting

Refer To Us

We welcome all doctor referrals accompanied with referral forms or letters.

Partner With Us

We look forward to discussing any potential partnership opportunities. Please e-mail marketing@quantummed.sg provide some background and our business development team will reach out to discuss further.
